Students show business sense

STUDENTS from five secondary schools took part in a young entrepreneurship day at a shopping centre.

Fifty Year 9 pupils from Bonus Pastor Catholic College in Bromley, St Matthew Academy in Blackheath, Conisborough College in Catford, Sedgehill School in Catford and Sydenham School for Girls students took part.

They ran pitches at Lewisham Shopping Centre on Saturday, March 26, where they bought and sold their products.

The event was part of an Entrepreneur

Academy course the students have been taking part in at Conisborough College in Conisborough Crescent every Saturday.

Pupils have been learning about setting up businesses, financial management, planning and marketing.
