Complaints and appeals procedure

If a candidate (or his/her parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification he/she is following, St Matthew Academy encourages him/her to try to resolve this informally in the first instance. A concern or complaint should be made in person, by telephone or in writing to the head of department, exams officer, director of learning or a senior leader.

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or his/her parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

- Forms are available from the exams officer
- Completed forms should be returned to the exams officer
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 3 working days

How a formal complaint is investigated

- The head of centre will appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion
- The appointed senior leader will report their findings and conclusion to the head of centre
- The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant within 4 working weeks
